RIGHT TO ATTEND

General Meetings may be attended by shareholders who hold at least one share, including shareholders with no voting rights, whose ownership appears in the corresponding entries of the share register at least five (5) days before the date of the General Meeting, and who can thus substantiate such ownership through the corresponding authentication certificate, this attendance card or any other manner admitted by the pertinent legislation currently in force.

PROXY VOTE

All shareholders with a right to attend may be represented at the General Meeting by a proxy holder, who need not necessarily be a shareholder. To do so, shareholders must complete the Proxy Vote section of the present card, which must be signed by the shareholder and the proxy holder in the designated spaces. The proxy can be sent to the Company by hand delivery, post, electronic media or other remote communication channels as set out by the Company Bylaws, General Meeting Regulations, information contained in the notice of the General Meeting and on the Company's website (www.fcc.es).

Proxy letters must be received by the Company at least twenty-four (24) hours before the day immediately preceding the scheduled General Meeting upon first call. Otherwise, the proxy will be deemed as not having been granted.

REMOTE VOTING

Shareholders may remotely cast their votes via post, an electronic medium or the Company's website (www.fcc.es) following publication of the notice of the General Meeting according to the corresponding instructions specifying how to do so on each screen of the cited web page.

- To vote by post, shareholders must duly complete, sign and send the present card to the Company.
- Shareholders can cast their votes remotely from the Company's website (www.fcc.es) by going to the section "Accionistas e inversores" (Shareholders and Investors) in the area dedicated to the General Meeting, and then following the corresponding instructions appearing on each screen of the cited web page.
 - Electronically cast votes will be issued under a recognised electronic signature, which will be accompanied by an inalterable copy of a duly completed and signed version of the present card.

Votes issued by any of the channels specified above must be received by the Company at least twenty-four (24) hours before the day immediately preceding the scheduled General Meeting upon first call. Otherwise, the vote shall be deemed as not having been given.

Likewise, remote votes cast by any of the channels listed above will be invalid:

- By subsequent and express revocation through the same medium employed to cast the vote and by the deadline to do so.
- By actual attendance of the voter at the General Meeting.
